USDA TEXAS RURAL DEVELOPMENT ANNOUNCES NEW EMPLOYEE SELECTION

Hebbronville, Texas, November 2002--USDA Texas Rural Development today announced that E. Eric Haner has been selected to serve as Community Development Specialist in the Hebbronville office. USDA Rural Development is charged with assisting rural communities by administering programs targeted to strengthening the economy and infrastructure of rural areas.

“We are very pleased to have Mr. Haner on board,” said Bryan Daniel, Texas State Director. “He has a wealth of knowledge that will serve us well,” said Daniel.

Mr. Haner graduated from Hebbronville High School in 1983 and Texas A & M University in 1987. Since 1987 Mr. Haner has been involved in all phases of agricultural management throughout Texas. Mr. Haner’s wife, Palmira, is an elementary educator at Webb Consolidated School District.

For more information regarding USDA Rural Development programs please visit the Hebbronville Local Service Center at 1700 NORTH SMITH STREET or call (361) 527-3253, Extension 4.

USDA Rural Development is an Equal Opportunity Lender, Provider, and Employer. Complaints of discrimination should be sent to: Office of Civil Rights, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410.

The USDA Rural Development mission area was created in 1994 and includes the Rural Business-Cooperative Service, the Rural Housing Service, and the Rural Utilities Service. Its mission is to use the resources of USDA to provide an improved quality of life for the nation’s 53 million rural people.
